SEPR International week & Erasmus Days event

On the occasion of Erasmus Days, the SEPR Centre organizes every year since 2017, a week of events around international mobility.

Testimonials of learners
who have gone abroad

Information webinars : doing internships, further studies abroad, holidays / work permits, international work camps, European voluntary missions...

Information stand on mobility opportunities abroad

Conference-debate with a Member of The European Parliament

Exhibition on "multilingualism".

Theater performance in English by an Italian troupe on themes as varied as Brexit or cyber-bullying.

Various sectors of the SEPR Centre involved each year in the organization of this international week

European menus in the cafeteria

Exhibition of books, audio and video materials related to international mobility at the library.

The 1st edition of the Erasmus Days took place in 2017 on the occasion of the 30th anniversary of the Erasmus+ program.

For this occasion the SEPR Centre organized an important event, including :

A Jazz concert

Interactive map: learners put blue stickers on countries where they have already travelled to and yellow stickers on countries they would like to travel to.

A Chinese calligraphy stand

A make-up stand animated by our aesthetics trainees beauty make overs or European flags

Erasmustudio : photography stand where learners and SEPR staff had pictures taken with accessories (fancy dresses, funny hats...) followed by the best photo contest!

Exhibitions of productions made during international exchanges with our partner schools.

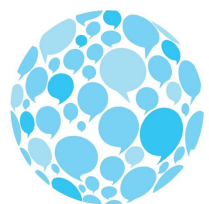

Winter coats made during an exchange with a partner school in Quebec.

Wooden electric guitars made during an exchange with a Finnish partner school. Work done in Franco-Finnish pairs.

BET 4 VET

WHAT IS BET FOR VET?

Bet 4 Vet is an event that brings together companies from our city and European agents working in the field of Vocational Training. This event organized by Mundus has the objective that international entities interested in bringing internship students to companies in Zaragoza get to know the city, its infrastructures, its business fabric and its potential to internationalize local projects with interns from different European countries.
